

After a long Summer break, the Adult Sunday School class is ready for a new year of expanding our knowledge and understanding of the Bible and what we believe as Christians. We will be meeting for the first time at 9:00 on Sunday, October 4. Unfortunately, our leader, Becky Casey has such a busy schedule that she will not be teaching this year. She was always prepared, and we had great discussions. We hope she will be able to participate, even if she won't be leading the class. Dale Janssen will be teaching this year. When we met in August to discuss THE SEPARATION OF CHURCH AND HATE, the consensus was that the book warranted a more thorough discussion than we could do in one evening, so we will make that our first book of the year. On October 4, we will discuss the introduction. This will give previous and new participants a chance to locate a copy of the book., and be prepared for the next week. If you can't commit to coming every week, or are only interested in certain topics, Angie will be posting the upcoming topic in the Thursday announcements. If any particular topic sounds interesting, please come, even if you haven't read the book.
